

ALAN SMITHSON

Professional MC & DJ

Alan Smithson began his DJ & MC career as a teenager and progressed his love for music over the years. In University he started performing for the on-campus bar “The Keg” and the on-campus nightclub “The Bullring”. After school, Alan began his professional career as a Pharmaceutical Rep. He never stopped DJ’ing and MC’ing and soon found that he was making more money on weekends then during the week. In 2005, Alan quit his job to pursue his passion full-time.

Alan has performed at more than 2000 events since 1996. The demand for Alan to host or DJ an event is increasing and because he loves what he does and has the musical knowledge to create the best parties. Alan constantly looks for new challenges and ways to create a better party than before. Alan is clearly an entertainer and uses his personality and music to make it happen. Alan provides the WOW factor at any event and that is why his clients always want him back. 2007-2008 Clients Include:
